

Victory Weekend for O'Young's Season Debut

March 24th, 2008

Hong Kong Chinese race driver Darryl O'Young took the Class A victory in Round 2 and also came 3rd in Round 1 of the Porsche Carrera Cup Asia, at Sepang, Malaysia, an official support race to the Formula 1 Petronas Malaysian Grand Prix.

O'Young, Porsche Carrera Cup Asia Champion in 2006 and looking this season for a second title as well as contesting the Porsche Mobil 1 Supercup in Europe for a second year, is back with his Blue Girl livery which he believes may be his lucky charm: "It was a great race, although there was really low grip and a lot of sliding about. I realised I had to be smooth rather than fast. I had a few lock ups but no real dramas."

In Round 1, O'Young had a brake bias adjustment prior to the race, which resulted in a spin early on, he made a quick recovery and managed to rejoin as 7th. And as O'Young climbed back through the field, he set the fastest lap of the race. When GruppeM Racing Tim Sugden suffered a puncture in the last lap, O'Young made his way to 3rd and cross the checkered flag. Christian Menzel of Team StarChase took champion while Marchy Lee of Team BetterLife came 2nd.

On Sunday, round 2 took place under worse track conditions. At the start of the race O'Young managed to out-brake Lee into turn 1, and moved up to 2nd. Menzel kept his position all the way until the final turn of the first lap. In turn 13 Menzel ran wide and was overtaken by O'Young. He then took the lead for the remainder of the race and opened a gap of 2.670 seconds by the checkered flag. O'Young also recorded the fastest lap of the race.

It was a victory weekend for Darryl O'Young. Stay tuned for his Porsche Mobil 1 Supercup season premiere in Sakhir, Bahrain on April 5th.
